There's lots to discover at the Errol Flynn Filmhouse this summer. During this hot weather our air conditioned auditorium and outdoor seating areas are the perfect place to wind down with a chilled glass of wine or delicious snack prior to your film. Following your feedback we have changed some of our film times from 6pm to 6.15pm allowing you enough time to get here after work, and relax and socialise prior to your screening.

This season we have introduced a Monday night documentary strand, are trialling food free screenings and are hosting a season of family films for the summer holidays. Our live broadcast events are proving extremely popular so we have also secured more of these, including three productions recorded at Shakespeare's Globe Theatre.

We look forward to welcoming you back or seeing you here for the first time very soon.
